Waldemar Romel, the Polish Consul in Curitiba who succeeded Josef Szonert (see [redacted]), has stated that Szonert is in difficulties with the Polish Foreign Ministry because of the manner in which he handled Polish affairs in Brazil. Romel appointed Manuel Korkis, formerly a messenger-usher in the Consulate, to the position of Consular Secretary. Andrzej Krochmal has been named janitor. After making these appointments, Romel stated that he was certain that no one would go through his papers and that no information would leak from his office.

2. Korkis has been assigned the task of watching Romel, just as Romel previously watched Szonert.
